

ITALY: Milano Fashion Global Summit scheduled on Nov 27

MILAN: Milano Fashion Global Summit is all set to bring together a highly selected group of industry leaders and other influential personalities from around the world to share authoritative opinions on the challenges and opportunities that fashion faces in today's constantly changing markets. The Summit gathers company leaders and top management and has a unique focus on the links between fashion and finance.

Milano Fashion Global Summit 2007 is organised by Class Editori in collaboration with the partner 'The Wall Street Journal', together with the Camera Nazionale della Moda Italiana (National Italian Fashion Chamber) and Merrill Lynch here in the city at Università Bocconi on 27th November 2007.

The extensive list of prestigious past speakers includes, Giorgio Armani, (Chairman and CEO, Giorgio Armani), Yves Carcelle (at the time, President, LVMH Fashion Group), Luca Cordero di Montezemolo (Chairman and CEO, Ferrari), and the Sheikh Majed J. Hamoud Al-Sabah (Chairman and CEO, Villa Moda Lifestyle), Mohamed Al Fayed (Chairman, Harrods), Diego Della Valle (Chairman and CEO, Tods), Francesco Trapani (CEO, Bulgari) and Adrian Zecha (Founder and Chairman, Aman Resorts).

The summit is entitled "Next Luxury. From luxury to global luxury, to personalized luxury ...What's Next? Markets, Strategies and Distribution to Outline the Fashion and the Design of the Future."